LOVE STOPS ON A DIME

Five o'clock rolls around she hates driving through town but her meds are ready at the pharmacy

She's fighting depression her only obsession, smoke filled meetings help keep her sanity

She doesn't know if its ever been good or if she did what she could to make it work this time

She only knows that he's not in her life, she's no longer his wife And it seems love stopped on a dime

He's been working night and day, but it isn't for the pay all that money doesn't seem important now

And his ego is sinking cause he can't stop thinking this is the second time he's broken his vow

He doesn't know if he's ever been pure, maybe never been cured of his wants and desires

His broken dreams slapped him right in the face, he's fallen out of grace
And it seems love stopped on a dime

Love is faithful, love is kind, love don't need to read between the lines

Love don't give up, love is blind
True love never stops on a dime

He holds his little girl tight, chokes back the tears and says goodbye, he can see the devastation on her face

She's too young to understand why mommy holds another man and why daddy has to live some other place

They'll never know what they've done to their child, all the hurt locked up inside, too young to be broken hearted

They only knew they were fighting a war, didn't know what it was for, didn't ask how it got started

Love don't give up, love is blind

Love don't give up, love is blind
